

MIGRANTS TRAINING PROGRAM

“Human rights and security in new immigration politics”

8-12 DECEMBRE 2020

Lecturer: Serena Romano (Legal Clinic for the Human Rights, University of Palermo)

Email address: avvocataserenaromano@gmail.com

LESSON N. 1 (8.12.2020)

The expansive path of the Human Rights from the post-war period to the end of the last century.

The objective of the lesson is to retrace the path of emergence and positivization of Human Rights on the international scene and within the framework of the European Union.

LESSON N. 2 (9.12.2020)

Human rights and migration

The lesson aims to analyze the relationship between human rights and migration and the recent crisis of the paradigm of the universality of human rights in the EU.

LESSON No. 3 (10.12.2020)

The criminalization of immigration in Italy. The crime of solidarity. Administrative tools to combat NGOs.

The aim of the lesson will be to analyze the evolution of the Italian immigration law and the criminal turning point in the management of the migration phenomenon.

LESSON N. 4 (11.12.2020)

Instruments to combat transnational organized crime and violation of the rights of defense
Smuggling, Trafficking and torture.

The aim of the lesson will be to analyze the main transnational crimes related to immigration - smuggling, trafficking, torture - and the repercussions on the principle of fair trial and the rights of defense.